FIA Food for the Future Summit: Postponement Announcement

In light of the recent coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, the FIA Food for the Future Summit that was scheduled to be held on 23 April 2020 has been postponed to 10 July 2020 at Marina Bay Sands, Singapore.

We apologise for any inconvenience caused by the postponement and seek your understanding that the decision was made based on the best interest of everyone that would be part of the summit. The format of the event will be exactly the same and we have the same great space at MBS.

The team will be reaching out to speakers, sponsors, partners, innovators and attendees involved for follow up arrangements. For any questions or concerns, please get in touch with us at events@foodindustry.asia.

Thank you for your understanding and we look forward to seeing you and hosting a great event at the summit.

Yours sincerely,

Matt Kovac
